

THE STORY OF QUIDNESSETT

It's natural for folks to intuitively think that the story of what is now North Kingstown must have begun in Wickford. But the fact of the matter is that "Kingstowne" as it was then known, was established generations prior to Wickford's beginnings, and Quidnessett, along with the area immediately around the old Boston Post Road were the places where it all began. Join Tim Cranston as we learn about the early history of Quidnessett, and the extraordinarily intriguing time during the first third of the 20th century, when it was a virtual private playground for RI's industrial elite.

A recording of this talk will be available online following the event.

Presented by Tim Cranston,
North Kingstown Town Historian

March 14 at 6:30pm
North Kingstown Town Hall
80 Boston Neck Rd.
Council Chambers, 2nd Floor

Seating available on first come, first served basis. Program will be recorded and posted to the @NorthKingstown350th Youtube channel.

This program is sponsored by the Friends of the North Kingstown Free Library.